FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PERLEY-ROBERTSON, HILL & McDOUGALL LLP/s.r.l. LAWYERS NAMED AMONG LEADING TRADE-MARK PRACTITIONERS IN THE WORLD

OTTAWA, January 26, 2016 – Ottawa-based law firm, Perley-Robertson, Hill & McDougall LLP/s.r.l. is pleased to announce that two lawyers in the firm's Intellectual Property Group were recently named among the leading trademark lawyers in the world by WTR 1000, the World Trademark Review.

With over 20 years of experience, Jennifer McKay “deftly dispatches any number of registration, availability and transfer issues.” Her extensive experience includes registration, licensing, opposition, litigation, availability opinions, transfers, domain names and summary cancellation proceedings.

Paul Braunovan, who has been with the firm since 2007 offers a “full suite of services, from preliminary searches to enforcement; he is at his best on tech matters.”

On their recognition, R. Aaron Rubinoff, Partner and firm Co-Chairman says, “The firm is proud to have both Jennifer and Paul working in our Intellectual Property Group. Their contribution to the Group is immeasurable, congratulations to both!”

The WTR 1000 is a directory exclusively dedicated to identifying the world's leading trade-mark legal service providers. The extensive research process is conducted over several months involving more than 1000 interviews with trade-mark specialists across the globe. Individual practitioners qualify for inclusion in the WTR 1000 upon receiving sufficient positive feedback from market sources.
